SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION
(Convened September 11, 2007)

Whereas, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in extraordinary session; now therefore,

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Section 3(b) Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in extraordinary session at Sacramento, California on the 11th day of September, 2007, at a time to be determined, for the following purpose and to legislate upon the following subjects:

To consider and act upon legislation to protect and restore the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta while also improving the reliability and quality of water supplies from that estuary.

To consider and act upon legislation to address the short term and long term improvement of California's water management system including the development of new surface and groundwater storage and improved conveyance facilities.

To consider and act upon legislation to appropriate funds, including appropriations for general obligation and lease revenue bonds, to improve water resource management, build additional water storage facilities, develop groundwater aquifers, improve groundwater quality and flood protection, and restore the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta and other important ecosystem restoration projects.

To consider and act upon legislation to place a general obligation bond and, as necessary, a lease revenue bond on the ballot.
